

DAVID PACK

Along with being former singer-songwriter for the 70s/80's rock group Ambrosia, David Pack has established himself as a respected recording artist, Grammy winning record producer, hit songwriter, and music director of global special events, including both of President Clinton's Arkansas Ball Inaugural Galas, Barbra Streisand and Elton John's Aids Project L.A. Commitment to Life Concert, and Oprah Winfrey's Volunteer Summit with George H.W. Bush, President Clinton, President Carter, Colin Powell, and other dignitaries.

His collected works have sold over 40 million units worldwide. His two principal musical mentors for over 25 years are friends Quincy Jones and the late Leonard Bernstein.

David's voice and songwriting skills have graced worldwide radio for over twenty-five years through his classic #1 hit songs with Ambrosia such as "Biggest Part of Me", "How Much I Feel", "You're The Only Woman", all BMI 3 Million Airplay-Grammy nominated songs, along with the no.1 hit he wrote, at Quincy Jones' request for General Hospital TV star Jack Wagner back in the late 80's: "All I Need"; and Ambrosia's Grammy nominated first hit "Holdin On To Yesterday".

As a Music Producer, he has produced platinum and gold selling Grammy nominated records for artists such as Kenny Loggins, Wynonna, Aretha Franklin, Michael McDonald, Linda Ronstadt, Brian McKnight, Phil Collins, CeCe Winans, Patti Austin, Andrae Crouch, and others. He has also music directed and conducted for major events at the request of Barbra Streisand, Madonna, David Foster, Oprah Winfrey, Elizabeth Taylor, and Quincy Jones.

David Pack is still actively touring the US and (sometimes) the world abroad. One of the highlighted albums in recent years is "David Pack's Napa Crossroads" released in 2014.
